Free Junk Disposal Across Boone County

From October 18 – October 24 between the hours of 8:00 am to 5:00 pm, Boone County Public Works is offering FREE disposal of junk, garbage, and bagged litter! We have a limit of 4 tires per resident.

Bring items to the Boone County Public Works Yard at the end of Maplewood Drive in Burlington or to Union Pool on Old Union Drive in Union.

We can NOT accept items from commercial entities. We will NOT accept liquid waste, hazardous waste, paint, dirt or concrete. To learn how to dispose of these items or if you have an item that may be questionable, please call Boone County Solid Waste department at 334-3151.

The City of Walton will have a junk collection event the same week at the new Public Works Building, 11 High School Court (old Walton Fire Department). Please call Connie Goins at 485-4383 for more information.

The City of Florence will host a Fall Cleanup the same week from 7 am to 7 pm Monday - Friday and 9 am - 7 pm Saturday and Sunday. It will be at the Public Works Yard in Florence off Tanner Lane. Call Jeremy Kleier at the City of Florence at 647-5416 for more information.
