Please join us for a fun event and a chance to find good homes for as many of your strays and fosters as possible. Local businesses are participating in the event, and also helping by spreading the word about the event to their customers and business associates. We will advertise in local news, and contact pet-friendly media. You can help too by promoting the event to all your contacts and securing whatever free advertising you may have access to. We hope you will help us to make this an outstanding event! We look forward to working with you and finding great homes for exceptional pets!

Please RSVP to Kathie at saveone@fuse.net by October 15, 2010 to reserve your space.
